

Campus Compact

How to Apply for the 2010 Thomas Ehrlich Faculty Award for Service-Learning

Please follow the instructions carefully to ensure your application is processed. All application materials are due by Midnight EST on Monday, April 5, 2010.

- STEP ONE: Go to <http://www.compact.org> to learn more about the award.
- STEP TWO: Fill out the nomination cover sheet.
- STEP THREE: Provide supportive documents for your candidacy.

- A letter of nomination from a colleague or self (limit 3 pages)
- A curriculum vita (limit 8 pages)
- A letter of support from a community partner (limit 3 pages)
- An essay from the nominee that specifically addresses the three selection criteria
  - Evidence of deeply engaged, high-quality academic work
  - Evidence of community collaboration and change
  - Evidence of institutional impact: (limit 5 pages)
- A service-learning course syllabus

These documents can be uploaded as a plain Word Documents (.doc), Rich Text Format (.rtf), or Portable Document Format (.pdf).

Please note that all materials MUST be submitted via email. Items will not be accepted via fax or mail so all supporting documents can be reviewed by the national review committee.

For questions regarding the award, please contact us at Ehrlichaward@compact.org (617) 357-1881 ext 205

Applications must be submitted by midnight EST Monday, April 5, 2010.