Office Hours: Tuesdays and Thursdays from 12:30 pm to 2:00 pm

And by arrangement

Office Phone: 727/873-4956

E-mail: jsm2@usfsp.edu and Canvas messenger

Website: <http://www.usfsp.edu/judithanne-scourfield-mclauchlan/>

Course Objective:

To study the history and politics of U.S. presidential campaigns, including an intensive internship in New Hampshire leading up to the first-in-the-nation primary.

In our seminars we will discuss topics such as the history of the presidential nominating process; the national conventions; voter turnout; polling; campaign strategy, tactics, and operations; campaign finance; third party and independent candidates; mass media and electoral politics; presidential debates; predicting presidential elections; the electoral college; reforming the electoral system and understanding presidential elections.

This is a six-credit course: three credits for the presidential campaign internship (separate Syllabus will be posted on Canvas site for POS 4941 Field Work) and three credits for the seminar about presidential campaigns (this is the Syllabus document).

Course Meeting Times and Locations:

Note that this is a by arrangement course. We will meet on selected Tuesdays/Thursdays on the USFSP Campus from 11:00 am to 12:15 pm, and we will also be meeting in New Hampshire from 2 February through 12 February 2020 (meeting dates and times to be specified in a separate NH Itinerary).

USF Course Description POS 3931 (Selected Topics in Political Science):

Selected topics in political science with course content based upon student demand and instructor's interest.

Course Prerequisites for POS 3931:

None

Course Website:

Additional readings may be distributed in class and/or posted on Canvas.

Suggested Reading/Viewing/Listening to Stay Abreast of National News and Current Events:

Appendices in this Syllabus includes the website links for the Democratic National Committee, Republican National Committee, and the New Hampshire and Florida Democratic and Republican party websites, as well as all of the Democratic and Republican presidential candidate websites and citations for books written by all of the presidential candidates. Please review these websites for more information about the candidates and campaigns prior to our first class meeting on January 14. Students will work together in groups to prepare short papers and PPT presentations about each of the candidates (Paper #1 assignment, described below).

Suggested Reading/Viewing to Stay Abreast of National News and Current Events:

Daily: Read a daily newspaper, such as the Tampa Bay Times, New York Times, the Washington Post, and/or the Wall Street Journal. (Available at Poynter Library and online.) Watch a network evening news program (NBC, CBS, ABC), CNN’s “Situation Room” and/or PBS “The NewsHour” (<http://www.pbs.org/newshour/>). Listen to a radio news program, such as “Morning Edition” (5 to 9 AM) or “All things Considered” (4 to 6 PM) on WUSF 89.7 (National Public Radio).

Students are also encouraged to check websites devoted to American politics, such as www.politicalwire.com, www.politico.com, and www.cnn.com/POLITICS/. See also washingtonpost.com, nytimes.com, <https://www.c-span.org/>, ABC News’ “The Note” <https://abcnews.go.com/alerts/the-note> Wall Street Journal (Washington Wire) <http://blogs.wsj.com/washwire/>

For updates about Florida and Tampa Bay political news, see the Tampa Bay Times (<http://www.tampabay.com/florida-politics/>), Politico Florida, Florida Playbook (<https://www.politico.com/states/florida>), Florida Politics (<https://floridapolitics.com/>) and the Sayfie Review (<https://www.sayfiereview.com/>)

Weekly: Read one or more of the following: Newsweek (<http://www.newsweek.com/>), Time <http://time.com>, U.S. News & World Report <https://www.usnews.com/> (Available at Poynter Library and online.) Watch one or more of the Sunday morning talk shows: “Meet the Press” with Chuck Todd (NBC) <https://www.nbc.com/meet-the-press>, “Face the Nation” with Margaret Brennan (CBS) <https://www.cbsnews.com/face-the-nation/>, “This Week” with George Stephanopoulos (ABC) <https://abcnews.go.com/ThisWeek>, “Fox News Sunday” with Chris Wallace (Fox) <https://www.foxnews.com/shows/fox-news-sunday>, and “Late Edition” with Wolf Blitzer (CNN) <https://www.cnn.com/CNN/Programs/late.edition/>

For Florida and Tampa Bay weekly public affairs programming, see “Florida this Week” with Ron Lorei on WEDU (<https://www.wedu.org/programs/ftw/>) and “Political Connections” with Holly Gregory on Bay News 9 (<https://www.baynews9.com/fl/tampa/politics/political-connections>)

In addition, look at what the local newspaper of your candidate is saying (e.g., What is the Star Tribune saying about Senator Amy Klobuchar? What does the South Bend Tribune say about Mayor Pete Buttigieg?).

Grading Policy:

60% Seminar Papers (6 @ 10%)
30% Final Exam
10% Attendance and Class Participation (NH and FL)

100% Total

Each of the above is worth points corresponding to the percentage of the final grade that exam represents (e.g., the Final Exam is worth 30 points). Only the numerical grade of each assignment counts toward the course's grade. The letter grade given to any single test/assignment only indicates where a student places for a particular test in relation to classmates.

A plus and minus system will be used in determining the final course grade. For example, 90-93 is an A-, 94-96 is an A, and a 97-100 is an A+. An 80-83 is a B-, an 84-86 is a B, and an 87-89.99 is a B+. And so on.

Seminar Papers (60%)

Students will write six (6) seminar papers during the course of the semester. No late seminar papers will be accepted. More detailed assignments and expectations will be handed out during the course of the semester (and posted on Canvas), but a general timeline of topics and deadlines can be found below:

Topics and Deadlines:

Paper #1, Due January 16, Presidential Candidate Paper/PPT Presentation
Paper #2, Due January 23, Review of Redlawsk book, Iowa Caucuses
Paper #3, Due January 30, Review of Scala book, NH Primary
Paper #4, Due March 5, Devise electoral strategy for party nominees
Paper #5, Due March 10, Jones book, predict 2020 presidential election results
Paper #6, Due March 26, Suggestions for Reform

Final Exam (30%)

The Final Exam (worth 30% of your final grade) will be administered on April 21st online

Attendance at the final examination is mandatory. Make-up exams will NOT be administered except in the most extreme (and documented) circumstances (e.g., the student is in the hospital or an immediate family member dies). Any student who fails to notify the professor of his or her absence from an exam within 24 hours of the scheduled exam absolutely forfeits all opportunity to take a make-up exam.

The final exam will include short answer, multiple choice, and essay questions that will require students to demonstrate their knowledge of the history and politics of U.S. presidential campaigns.

The University's Academic Dishonesty Policy will be strictly enforced. See the University's Academic Dishonesty policy in your Undergraduate Catalogue. You can view a copy online at www.sa.usf.edu/handbook/02/academics/ImportantAcademicPolicies.htm

Attendance and Participation (NH and FL) (10%)

Note that this is a “by arrangement” course. It is expected that students will participate in ALL ACTIVITIES that are scheduled for the class while in New Hampshire, including morning seminars and other class events. Please review the syllabus and course meeting times prior to registration. If you cannot participate in course meetings and seminars, please do not register for the class.

Active and informed participation in class discussions and events will count towards your final course grade (10%). The professor will take attendance when class begins. To “attend” class is to arrive when class starts and to remain until class is finished.

Students who anticipate the necessity of being absent from class due to the observance of a major religious holiday must provide advance notice of the date(s) to the professor in writing during the first week of class.

Note that 10% is the difference between an “A” and a “B” for a semester grade.

Other Important Course Information:

*Cell phones, i-pods, and pagers should be turned off during class (completely off, not in vibrate mode).

Use of laptops in this class is strongly discouraged. See the professor to explain why you absolutely must have a laptop during class. If an exception is granted, laptops should be used for course-related materials only. Surfing the web, checking e-mail and Facebook, and playing solitaire will serve as a distraction to your neighbor (not to mention these activities will be a distraction for YOU!). If you don't want to participate, then don't come to class.

Taping or taking notes for the purpose of sale is strictly prohibited.* Students must obtain permission from the instructor prior to taping the class for personal use.

University Emergency Policy: In the event of an emergency, it may be necessary for USF to suspend normal operations. During this time, USF may opt to continue delivery of instruction through methods that include but are not limited to: Canvas, Elluminate, Skype, and email messaging and/or an alternate schedule. It's the responsibility of the student to monitor Canvas site for each class for course specific communication, and the main USF, College, and department websites, emails, and MoBull messages for important general information.

A note about course sharing websites and copyright restrictions: All course materials are copyright protected and are for student use in this course only. Course materials including lectures, assignment details, print materials, etc. may not be shared, redistributed, or sold.

COPYRIGHTS: Students who wish to audiotape lectures can do so with direct permission from the professor, but tapes and lectures may not be sold. No videos or photos can be taken in the classroom without permission of the instructor.

INCOMPLETE GRADES: An “I” grade may be given to an undergraduate student only when a small portion of the student’s work (normally 30% or less) is incomplete due to circumstances beyond the control of the student and only when a student is otherwise earning a passing grade. “I” grades are to be used only in emergency situations and cannot to be used as a means of avoiding a poor grade. Normally these are only for medical emergencies and require a signed letter from a medical professional that the student was prevented from attending class. The student must petition the professor before the week of final exams for a grade of “I” to be given.

GRADE FORGIVENESS: Grade forgiveness is limited to three USFSP courses with no more than one repeat per course.

WITHDRAWAL: No “W” grades can be obtained after the official drop or withdrawal date (see USFSP academic calendar provided by Registrar’s Office). All students enrolled as of the withdrawal date (see USFSP academic calendar provided by Registrar’s Office), will receive a letter grade of A, B+, B, C, C+, C, D+, D or F.

Support Services:

Students with documented learning and/or physical disabilities in need of accommodation are encouraged to work with the Office of Student Disability Services and should meet with the instructor to inform her about any special requirements they may have during the first week of classes (and to present her with the confidential letter from the Office of Student Disability Services). The Office of Student Disability Services is located in SLC 1203. 873-4837 or 873-4990. (As the Office of Student Disability Services brochure explains, accommodations are designed to compensate for your specific disability. “Accommodations vary from student to student and class to class, but they include services of note-takers, use of computers for exams, and the services of writing assistants or readers for exams.”) <http://www.usfsp.edu/disability/>

The Student Success Center provides academic counseling, tutoring and instruction (including writing), and conducts workshops and seminars (topics include time management and test preparation). The Student Success Center is located in Davis 107. 873-4632. <http://www.usfsp.edu/success/>

The Wellness Center is available for students who want to talk to someone about issues they are experiencing, such as adjusting to college life, stress, dating and sexuality, family problems, academic performance, alcohol and other drug use, and depression. All services are free and confidential. 873-4422 and 873-4129. Counseling and Health services are available in the newly renovated Student Life Center, SLC 2200. <http://www.usfsp.edu/wellness/>

USF Policies:

Academic Integrity

Academic integrity is the foundation of the University of South Florida System's commitment to the academic honesty and personal integrity of its university community. Academic integrity is grounded in certain fundamental values, which include honesty, respect, and fairness. Broadly defined, academic honesty is the completion of all academic endeavors and claims of scholarly knowledge as representative of one's own efforts. The final decision on an academic integrity violation and related academic sanction at any USF System institution shall affect and be applied to the academic status of the student throughout the USF System, unless otherwise determined by the independently accredited institution. The process for faculty reporting of academic misconduct, as well as the student's options for appeal, are outlined in detail in USF System Regulation 3.027.

Disruption to Academic Progress

Disruptive students in the academic setting hinder the educational process. Disruption of the academic process is defined as the act, words, or general conduct of a student in a classroom or other academic environment which in the reasonable estimation of the instructor: (a) directs attention away from the academic matters at hand, such as noisy distractions, persistent, disrespectful or abusive interruption of lecture, exam, academic discussion, or general University operations, or (b) presents a danger to the health, safety, or well-being of self or other persons.

Academic Grievance Procedure The purpose of these procedures is to provide all undergraduate and graduate students taking courses within the University of South Florida System an opportunity for objective review of facts and events pertinent to the cause of the academic grievance. An "academic grievance" is a claim that a specific academic decision or action that affects that student's academic record or status has violated published policies and procedures, or has been applied to the grievant in a manner different from that used for other students.

Disability Access

Students with disabilities are responsible for registering with Students with Disabilities Services (SDS) (SVC 1133) in order to receive academic accommodations. SDS encourages students to notify instructors of accommodation needs at least five (5) business days prior to needing the accommodation. A letter from SDS must accompany this request

Sexual Misconduct / Sexual Harassment

USF is committed to providing an environment free from sex discrimination, including sexual harassment and sexual violence (USF System Policy 0-004). The USF Center for Victim is a confidential resource where you can talk about incidents of sexual harassment and gender-based crimes including sexual assault, stalking, and domestic/relationship violence. This confidential resource can help you without having to report your situation to either the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities (OSSR) or the Office of Diversity, Inclusion, and Equal Opportunity (DIEO), unless you request that they make a report. Please be aware that in compliance with Title IX and under the USF System Policy, educators must report incidents of sexual harassment and gender-based crimes including sexual assault, stalking, and domestic/relationship violence. If you disclose any of these situations in class, in papers, or to me personally, I am required to report it to OSSR or DIEO for investigation. Contact the USF Center for Victim Advocacy and Violence Prevention: (813) 974-5757.

Religious Observances

All students have a right to expect that the University will reasonably accommodate their religious observances, practices and beliefs (USF System Policy 10-045). The USF System, through its faculty, will make every attempt to schedule required classes and examinations in view of customarily observed religious holidays of those religious groups or communities comprising the USF System's constituency. Students are expected to attend classes and take examinations as determined by the USF System. No student shall be compelled to attend class or sit for an examination at a day or time prohibited by his or her religious belief. However, students should review the course requirements and meeting days and times to avoid foreseeable conflicts, as excessive absences in a given term may prevent a student from completing the academic requirements of a specific course. Students are expected to notify their instructors at the beginning of each academic term if they intend to be absent for a class or announced examination, in accordance with this Policy.

Statement of Academic Continuity

In the event of an emergency, it may be necessary for USF to suspend normal operations. During this time, USF may opt to continue delivery of instruction through methods that include, but are not limited to: Learning Management System, online conferencing, email messaging, and/or an alternate schedule. It is the responsibility of the student to monitor the Learning Management System for each class for course-specific communication, and the main USF, College, and Department websites, emails, and MoBull messages for important general information (USF System Policy 6-010). For additional guidance on emergency protective actions and hazards that affect the University, please visit www.usf.edu/em

2020 Presidential Primary Calendar

From the New York Times

<https://www.nytimes.com/interactive/2019/us/elections/2020-presidential-election-calendar.html>

February 2020		Democratic Republican
	Iowa caucuses
3 Mon.	Because these are the first votes cast, there is a lot at stake in terms of momentum and attention from donors and the news media. The results here will winnow the field.	41	40
11 Tue.	New Hampshire primaries Don't be surprised if only a few candidates are still standing after the votes are counted here.	24	22
22 Sat.	Nevada Democratic caucuses Another key early state with a high-turnout caucus, and the first one with a significant Hispanic population.	36
29 Sat.	South Carolina Democratic primary This state will offer the first real indication of the candidates' strengths with black voters.	54
March 2020 Democratic Republican
3 Tue.	Alabama primaries Super Tuesday accounts for about 40 percent of total delegate allocation.	52	50
	American Samoa Democratic caucus		6
	Arkansas primaries		31 40
	California primaries Because it has the largest delegate trove in the country, California is key to Super Tuesday.	415	172
	Colorado primaries	67	34
	Maine primaries	24	22
	Massachusetts primaries	91	41
	Minnesota primaries	75	39
	North Carolina primaries*	110	71
	Oklahoma primaries	37	43
	Tennessee primaries	64	58
	Texas primaries* The second-largest delegate trove of the primary.		228 155
	Utah primaries		29 40

	Vermont primaries*	16	17
	Virginia Democratic primary	99
	Democrats Abroad primary	13
10 Tue.	Idaho primaries*	20	32
	Michigan primaries
	Midwestern powerhouses like Michigan will test the candidates' appeal among suburbanites, African-Americans and working-class white voters. If the race is not decided on Super Tuesday, this could be a line of demarcation.	125	73
	Mississippi primaries	36	40
	Missouri primaries	68	54
	North Dakota Democratic caucuses	14
	Washington primaries	89	44
12 Thu.	Virgin Islands Republican caucus*	6
14 Sat.	Guam Republican caucus*	6
	Northern Marianas Democratic convention	6
	Wyoming Republican conventions*	26
17 Tue.	Arizona Democratic primary
	If one candidate sweeps Arizona, Florida, Illinois and Ohio, there will be immense pressure on the other candidates to exit the race.	67
	Florida primaries	219	122
	Illinois primaries	155	67
	Northern Marianas Republican convention*	9
	Ohio primaries	136	82
21 Sat.	Kentucky Republican caucuses*	46
24 Tue.	American Samoa Republican caucus*	6
	Georgia primaries	105	76
29 Sun.	Puerto Rico Democratic primary	51
	April 2020
		Democratic	Republican
4 Sat.	Alaska Democratic primary	15
	Hawaii Democratic primary	24
	Louisiana primaries*	54	46
	Wyoming Democratic caucuses	14
7	Wisconsin primaries	84	52

		April 2020		Democratic Republican
Tue.
28	Connecticut primaries		60		28
Tue.	Delaware primaries*		21		16
	Maryland primaries		96		38
	New York primaries
	This may be the last big delegate day of the race. If one candidate dominates every state this late in the primary, party leaders will likely move to get behind that person and seek to bring the race to an end.		274		95
	Pennsylvania primaries		186		34
	Rhode Island primaries		26		19

		May 2020		Democratic Republican
2 Sat.	Guam Democratic caucus		7
	Kansas Democratic primary		39
5 Tue.	Indiana primaries*	82		58
12 Tue.	Nebraska primaries	29		36
	West Virginia primaries	28		34
19 Tue.	Kentucky Democratic primary	54
	Oregon primaries	61		28

		June 2020		Democratic Republican
2 Tue.	District of Columbia primaries	20		19
	Montana primaries	19		27
	New Jersey primaries*	126		49
	New Mexico primaries	34		22
	South Dakota primaries*	16		29
6 Sat.	Virgin Islands Democratic caucuses	7
7 Sun.	Puerto Rico Republican primary*			23

July 2020

13-16
Mon. Democratic National Convention
Democratic officials chose Milwaukee as the site of the party's nominating convention, placing a spotlight on a key Midwestern battleground state.

August 2020

24-27 Mon. Republican National Convention
The Republicans will hold their convention in Charlotte, N.C.

November 2020

3 Tue. Election Day
