Nomination Letter

Please upload a letter of nomination written and signed by the president or chancellor of the nominating institution. The letter should be on official letterhead. It should reflect the president or chancellor's intention to have this student represent the college or university in a national fellowship of community-committed students. Please include information about the nominee's approach(es) to addressing the root causes of social issues. These may be, for example, involvement in public policy reform, community organizing, community-based research, social entrepreneurship, or other efforts to build the capacity of community-based organizations. Additionally, please describe why the institution believes this student has the motivation and potential to develop innovative and collaborative approaches to addressing public problems and to contribute to a network of similarly committed students.

Leadership Profile

Please provide a brief (200-word max) abstract summarizing the recommendation. These profiles will be used for publicity purposes and will be featured on Campus Compact's website. The profile should reflect the president's or chancellor's intention to have this student represent the college or university in a national fellowship of student leaders. Please include information central to the nomination, including the nominee's approach to addressing the root causes of social issues and the nominee's potential for developing innovative and collaborative strategies to address public problems. Please note that the president or chancellor should approve this profile, as their name will appear underneath it. All profiles must be submitted by the office of the president or chancellor.

Nominee Personal Statement

Please provide a brief (200-word max) statement from the nominated student about their work. The student's name will appear under this personal statement. These personal statements will be used for publicity purposes and will be featured on Campus Compact's website. The student should include information central to the nomination, including their approach to addressing the root causes of social issues and their potential for developing innovative and collaborative strategies to address public problems.

Mentor Assignment

All Newman Fellows should be assigned a local mentor. If one has been identified, provide their contact info here. If one has not been identified, nominating campuses must agree to reach out to Campus Compact by the fall semester to identify the nominee's mentor or request assistance in placing a mentor with the Newman nominee.
